SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING: SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

On April 26, at approximately 1438 hours, three white male juvenile subjects entered the Penryn Beacon wearing nylons over their faces. One subject was armed with what was described as a long gun, a second subject was armed with what appeared to be a revolver. The clerk was forced at gunpoint to open the cash register and hand over an undisclosed amount of cash. The trio then fled on foot, north from the business into an open field area. Sheriff's deputies responded with the assistance of Rocklin Police Department, CHP, and the Sheriff's Department Air Operations Unit. A perimeter was secured, and an immediate search was commenced using ground, air and canine resources.

The search for the suspects continued, as deputies at the request of residents in the area, searched several houses and outbuildings for public safety purposes. At this time the suspects remain at large. They are described as young, white, male teens, last seen wearing dark pants, blue windbreakers. Upon fleeing, the suspects were still wearing the nylons over their faces.

The investigation continues with the leads developed at the scene by the detectives and Loomis area deputies. The public is encouraged to call the Sheriff's Department at 530-889-7800 if they have any information about the crime or the suspects' identification or whereabouts.
